PROFILE ID TITLE: W2 Case Mgmt-Other NRFULL TITLE: Wisconsin Works (W-2)- Case Management-Other Cases - Non-Reimbursable ConsortiumREPORTING INSTRUCTIONS:

Report costs related to case management of other cases such as non-custodial parents, pregnant women, and minor parents. These cases are not eligible for W-2 but may benefit from case management services by the FEP. The costs related to the following services should be reported on this profile:

The non-custodial parent is eligible for case management, job search and basic skills training which enhance employment opportunities, e.g. drivers education, and are eligible for a CSJ like position if sufficient slots are available. The pregnant woman is eligible for case management services and job search. These case management services may include making the appropriate referrals to access child care or discussing employment goals when the child is 12 weeks old. The minor parent(s) is eligible to meet with the FEP who will provide information about W-2 eligibility, available child care services, high school and school-to-work preparation, employment and financial planning, family planning services, community resources, eligibility for food stamps, and other food and nutrition programs or medical assistance.
